Update on Haiti Missions

Thank you for your concerns about the churches in Haiti. Most of the violence is in and around Port-au-Prince, the capital.

The biggest problem in Haiti is a gas shortage. Of course, most people have no vehicle, but they must take the bus. Every village and town gets some gasoline every week. Travel can happen only after the distribution of gas.

Preachers are being asked to come and teach a denominational church, but no gas is available. He hopes to go there after the next distribution of gas.

About 80% of our congregations are in rural Haiti. Please keep praying for our brethren in the capital.

If you do not have a photo you would like to use, in the next few weeks, we will begin taking pictures before and after services.
