Joe Worndle Update

Dear folks,

I wish you all a blessed and happy new year. The past year was a difficult one for me personally but a blessed one for our ministry. Many prayed for me and your prayers helped me to overcome the most difficult crisis of my life. My doctors told me that God must really love me. I am almost totally back to my normal health. I struggled with blood poisoning.

Thank you all for praying for me.

I have confidence in God to totally restore my health.

I will cut down my workload a bit. It will be necessary to continue the training of our preachers and teachers. I really need to continue to do what I am currently doing. I must not ONLY teach how to preach and teach but also help students to work their computers, help them about their finances.

The work goes on through the internet with daily contacts with my people.

Our preaching schools are the greatest tool to teach without having to be right in the class room. I can be in three class rooms at once. We have very able and capable men which I teach. They in turn teach men who never have been in any school.

Please continue to pray for me. Please remember our work is big. Remember that funds are so difficult to obtain to keep the work going. I rely on you all to keep us going.

May God bless you all.

Joe Worndle.

Alpha Omega Breakfast

On February 3rd at 8:00 am, there will be a breakfast for our young children (alpha) and our seniors (omega). Service will be provided by members of the youth group. This will be a great opportunity for Good Samaritan points! Saturday mornings can be hectic for parents with young children. Take a morning off and let us cook them (and you) breakfast! As for our seniors, we want to show you how much we love you! We appreciate you for laying the foundation of the church in Hamilton that allows our young people to grow closer to God in the way that they should.

Note from Will: I will be cooking! If there are any allergy concerns or dietary restrictions, please let me know! I will make sure to have something there for you! Do not let that be the reason you don't come!

Youth Group Christmas Party

We had another great turn out for our teen Christmas party! 21 kids were able to be there! A huge thank you goes out to Tonya Ballard and Esther Ballard for making this party happen! Thank you to the parents that made sure their kids were there! We are so proud of our young people!

Evangelism University

Make sure you have your calendar marked (1/12-1/14) if you have signed up for EU! Cost is $45 per attendee. Make sure you have your money in before we head out! You will need money for one meal on the way there. We will be back around lunch on Sunday.
